

AOA: MPs research November–December 2016

METHODOLOGY NOTE

ComRes interviewed 152 MPs online and by paper self-completion questionnaire between 10th November and 19th December 2016. Data were weighted to reflect the exact composition of the House of Commons in terms of party representation and regional constituency distribution. ComRes is a member of the British Polling Council and abides by its rules.

All press releases or other publications must be checked with ComRes before use. ComRes requires 48 hours to check a press release unless otherwise agreed.

To commission a Voting Intention poll, stakeholder study or a public opinion survey please contact Oliver Wright, Research Director: Oliver.Wright@comresglobal.com

November 2016 MPs Parliamentary Panel Survey

Q1. To what extent, if at all, do you agree or disagree with the following statement? 'Following the result of the referendum to leave the European Union, the UK's international air connectivity is more important than ever before.' 1
Base: All respondents

Q2. Air services agreements provide the legal framework that allows airlines to fly between countries. Within the EU this is called the 'Single Aviation Market' and there are also seven EU-level air services agreements with non-EU countries which the UK currently is part of, including with the US and Canada. Once the UK leaves the EU, the UK will no longer automatically be part of the Single Aviation Market or those EU-level air services agreements. To what extent, if at all, do you agree or disagree with the following statement regarding air services agreements? 'To ensure the continuity of air services between the UK, the EU and countries like the US and Canada, agreeing new air services agreements with these countries should be one of the UK Government's top priorities following the EU referendum.' 3
